

Course Descriptions for Petros Academy and the Educational Resource Center
(2020-2021)

Petros Academy Courses

Grammar I (Gr. K-2)

Phonics/Spelling

Tuition: $180/year

Description: Using Memoria Press's phonics and spelling series, this class offers instruction for your student at any level of proficiency. Whether your child is a non-reader, beginning reader, or proficient reader, exercises will be chosen to reflect their abilities, as well as push them towards improvement. A meeting with the Mentor will be necessary to determine your child's ability level and, therefore, the required materials. An appointment may be scheduled by emailing us at homeschool@stpeternorthridge.org.

Handwriting

Tuition: $180/year

Description: Good handwriting builds fine motor ability and leaves a good impression on those who see it. Students will have regular instruction and practice in handwriting using printables, journals, etc.

Recitations

Tuition: $120/year, plus a $5 mat. fee payable on the first day

Description: With an emphasis on learning a chronological timeline of history (set to music) and on memorizing select passages of Scripture, students will take advantage of the early phase in their lives when memorization comes naturally to them and they are able to absorb large amounts of information.

History

Tuition: $180/year

Description: Learning history chronologically has proven invaluable in the lives of many children. By memorizing names, dates, places and events, children gain a valuable tool for understanding how God is working today and what He has done during many past events. The value of integrating learning biblically and non-biblically recorded events and their dates cannot be overestimated. Furthermore, they are following classical methodology by memorizing this material which is presented in a variety of ways that makes the memory work quite enjoyable.

Grammar I students will be studying Veritas Press's Old Testament & Ancient Egypt

Course Requirements:

- Enhanced CD with teacher's manual and timeline song
- Flashcards

Strongly Recommended:

- Pages of History I OR set of Volumes 1 & 2

Grammar II (Gr. 3-4)

Grammar, Shurley English

Tuition: $180/year

Description: This class seeks to nurture a love of the English language with an understanding of how it is correctly used. Using the Shurley English curriculum, this class will introduce and review grammar concepts and practice "jingles" as memory aids. Games and other exercises will be used to reinforce learning.

Course Requirements:

- Shurley English Level 4 Teacher's manual, workbook, and practice book

History

Tuition: $180/year

Description: Learning history chronologically has proven invaluable in the lives of many children. By memorizing names, dates, places and events, children gain a valuable tool for understanding how God is working today and what He has done during many past events. The value of integrating learning biblically and non-biblically recorded events and their dates cannot be overestimated. Furthermore, they are following classical methodology by memorizing this material which is presented in a variety of ways that makes the memory work quite enjoyable.

Grammar II students will be studying from Veritas Press's New Testament, Greece, and Rome

Course Requirements:

- Enhanced CD with teacher's manual and timeline song
- Flashcards

Strongly Recommended:

- Pages of History 1 OR set of Volumes 1 & 2
- Famous Men of Greece
- Famous Men of Rome
- August Caesar's World

Latina Christiana

Tuition: $180/year

Description: Starting with First Form Latin, students will take a grammar first approach to the ancient language which is suitable for those just beginning, as well as those in the Grammar Stage. Second and Third Form reviews all material in the previous Forms, completes the verb paradigms for all four conjugations in the indicative active and passive, and much more! Fourth Form Latin completes the journey of Latin grammar by reviewing all material in First, Second, and Third Form, completing all verb forms for all four conjugations by studying participles, infinitives, gerunds, etc. Note: Students in 4th grade will begin with “Latina Christiana”, a precursor to “First Form Latin”.*

Course Requirements:

- Latina Christiana workbook and flashcards

Literature and Cursive

Tuition: $180/year

Description: Your student continues the skills he/she developed in Grammar I with literature-focused handwriting exercises. Literature selections will include nursery rhymes, Aesop’s Fables, McGuffey’s Readers, etc.

Recitations

Tuition: $120/year, plus a $5 mat. fee payable on the first day

Description: With an emphasis on learning a chronological timeline of history (set to music) and on memorizing select passages of Scripture, students will take advantage of the early phase in their lives when memorization comes naturally to them and they are able to absorb large amounts of information.

Grammar III (Gr. 5-6)

Classical Composition

Tuition: $180/year

Description: Ancient writers invented a way of teaching writing known as the progymnasmata, which provided a method of teaching composition that not only taught budding writers a disciplined way to approach communication, but also helped them appeal to the heads of their audience. The progymnasmata gave them the stylistic tools to appeal to their hearts as well.

The greatest communicators of ancient times, Quintilian and Cicero among them, employed the progymnasmata to teach their students the art of communication. The 14 exercises, organized from the simplest and most basic to the most complex and sophisticated, were the core education of a classical speaker, designed to produce what Quintilian once called ‘the good man, speaking well.’”

Course Requirements:

- Classical Composition Levels I,II, and III (Fable, Narrative, Chreia & Maxim)

Grammar, Shurley English

Tuition: $180/year

Description: This class seeks to nurture a love of the English language with an understanding of how it is correctly used. Using the Shurley English curriculum, this class will introduce and review grammar concepts and practice "jingles" as memory aids. Games and other exercises will be used to reinforce learning.

Course Requirements:

- Shurley English Level 5 Teacher's manual, workbook, and practice book

History

Tuition: $180/year

Description: Learning history chronologically has proven invaluable in the lives of many children. By memorizing names, dates, places and events, children gain a valuable tool for understanding how God is working today and what He has done during many past events. The value of integrating learning biblically and non-biblically recorded events and their dates cannot be overestimated. Furthermore, they are following classical methodology by memorizing this material which is presented in a variety of ways that makes the memory work quite enjoyable.

Grammar III students will be studying from Veritas Press's Explorers to 1815

Course Requirements:

- Enhanced CD with teacher's manual and timeline song
- Flashcards

Strongly Recommended:

- Pages of History 2 OR set of volumes 1 & 2
- The World of Columbus and Sons
- The World of Captain John Smith
- George Washington's World

Latin

Tuition: $180/year

Description: Starting with First Form Latin, students will take a grammar first approach to the ancient language which is suitable for those just beginning, as well as those in the Grammar Stage. Second and Third Form reviews all material in the previous Forms, completes the verb paradigms for all four conjugations in the indicative active and passive, and much more! Fourth Form Latin completes the journey of Latin grammar by reviewing all material in First, Second, and Third Form, completing all verb forms for all four conjugations by studying participles, infinitives, gerunds, etc. Note: New students to Latin must start with First Form*

Course Requirements:

- Your child's appropriate Latin workbook and textbook from Memoria Press. New students to Latin must start with First Form

Recommended:

- Vocabulary flashcards
- Pronunciation CD

Recitations

Tuition: $120/year, plus a $5 mat. fee payable on the first day of class

Description: With an emphasis on learning a chronological timeline of history (set to music) and on memorizing select passages of Scripture, students will take advantage of the early phase in their lives when memorization comes naturally to them and they are able to absorb large amounts of information.

Dialectic (Gr. 7-9)

Analytical Grammar (Mondays Only)

Tuition: $90/year, plus a TBD materials fee for required materials

Description: Designed to be taught in three grammar "seasons" over three years, Analytical Grammar is not your average grammar program! Used successfully with students of varying abilities, the innovative and logical method is not only effective, but actually enjoyable. The step-by-step approach will prepare students for the rigor of college work, while the comprehensive scope ensures mastery. Approaching grammar with the idea that students learn it and then move on, rather than continually re-learning the same concepts over and over, the "spiral" method will help students master grammar once and for all.

Required materials:

- Analytical Grammar workbook
- Supplemental practice book

course is offered for the higher level if students are behind in grammar and/or are taking Logic I*

Classical Composition

Tuition: $180/year

Description: Ancient writers invented a way of teaching writing known as the progymnasmata, which provided a method of teaching composition that not only taught budding writers a disciplined way to approach communication, but also helped them appeal to the heads of their audience. The progymnasmata gave them the stylistic tools to appeal to their hearts as well.

The greatest communicators of ancient times, Quintilian and Cicero among them, employed the progymnasmata to teach their students the art of communication. The 14 exercises, organized from the simplest and most basic to the most complex and sophisticated, were the core education of a classical speaker, designed to produce what Quintilian once called 'the good man, speaking well.'"

Required materials: Classical Compositions Levels IV, V, and VI (Confirmation & Refutation, Common Topic, and Encomium, Invective, & Comparison)

Latin

Tuition: $180/year

Description: Starting with First Form Latin, students will take a grammar first approach to the ancient language which is suitable for those just beginning, as well as those in the Grammar Stage. Second and Third Form reviews all material in the previous Forms, completes the verb paradigms for all four conjugations in the indicative active and passive, and much more! Fourth Form Latin completes the journey of Latin grammar by reviewing all material in First, Second, and Third Form, completing all verb forms for all four conjugations by studying participles, infinitives, gerunds, etc.

Course Requirements:

- Your child's appropriate Latin workbook and textbook from Memoria Press. New students to Latin must start with First Form

Recommended:

- Vocabulary flashcards
- Pronunciation CD

Logic I or II (Wednesdays Only)

*Grade Levels: Dialectic (7-9) and Rhetoric (10-12)

Tuition: $90/year

Description: Traditional Logic is an in-depth study of the classical syllogism. Along with a basic understanding of the Christian theory of knowledge, this class presents the four kinds of logical statements, the four ways propositions can be opposed, the three ways which they can be equivalent, and the seven rules for the validity of syllogisms.

course is offered for the higher level if students are unfamiliar with the subject*

Required materials:

- Traditional Logic I workbook and textbook OR Traditional Logic II* workbook and textbook

Traditional Logic I must be completed before moving on to Traditional Logic II*

Omnibus (History, Theology, Literature)

Grade Levels: Dialectic (7-9) and Rhetoric (10-12)

Tuition: $300/year

Description: Omnibus I: Discussion of the History, Literature and Theology of Ancient Times: With history, literature, and theology wrapped into one discussion course, the “all-encompassing” Omnibus I curriculum by Veritas Press explores literature relating to Ancient times from a Christian worldview. This class seeks to help students grow through reading great works while they also grow in the ability to contribute to good discussion related to the books being read.

Assignments anticipate that each week students will spend 1 to 1 ½ hours reading/preparing on each of the three weekdays the class does not meet in order to be ready to enjoy participating in scheduled discussions. Dialectic students (Grades 7-9) will be building independence in completing readings, building comprehension skills, and applying what they read in ever improving discussion skills. Rhetoric students (Grades 10-12) will be doing these things as well as leading the way in recognizing ideas and philosophies and analyzing them from a Christian worldview. Since our goal is to enjoy challenging ourselves with these great works, the work load may be modified for students at different levels in a way that will still allow for fruitful group discussion, and parent input is welcomed and encouraged.

Books to be read will be chosen from among those covered in the Omnibus I textbook. Primary books (traditional Great Books) will be chosen from among books such as the Epic of Gilgamesh, The Code of Hammurabi, The Odyssey, Histories, Oresteia, Plutarch's Lives, The Theban Trilogy, The Last Days of Socrates, The Early History of Rome, The Aeneid, Julius Caesar, and books of the Bible. Secondary books (which provide balance in the areas of Theology, History and Literature) will be chosen from among books such as: Till we Have Faces, The Chronicles of Narnia, The Best Things in Life, the Unaborted Socrates, The Eagle of the Ninth, and The Screwtape Letters.

Required materials:

- Omnibus I Textbook (please wait to acquire reading material until told to do so by Mentor—not all books will be covered during the schoolyear)

Rhetoric (Gr. 10-12) *Several classes require Dialectic-level prerequisites to be completed before taking

Civics (Wednesdays Only)

Tuition: $90/year

Description: Learn the roots of our constitutional republic, beginning with the Anglo-Saxon common law concerning the rights of an Englishman and culminating with the American dream of self-government. We begin with the Magna Carta and the Mayflower Compact; meet Thomas Hobbes, John Locke, and Adam Smith; learn about the intolerable Acts, Thomas Payne's Common Sense, Declaration of Independence, Rebuttal to the Declaration of Independence, the Articles of the Confederation and finally the U. S. Constitution.

Classical Composition

Tuition: $180/year

Description: Ancient writers invented a way of teaching writing known as the progymnasmata, which provided a method of teaching composition that not only taught budding writers a disciplined way to approach communication, but also helped them appeal to the heads of their audience. The progymnasmata gave them the stylistic tools to appeal to their hearts as well.

The greatest communicators of ancient times, Quintilian and Cicero among them, employed the progymnasmata to teach their students the art of communication. The 14 exercises, organized from the simplest and most basic to the most complex and sophisticated, were the core education of a classical speaker, designed to produce what Quintilian once called ‘the good man, speaking well.’”

*Required materials: Classical Compositions Levels VII, VIII, IX (Characterization, Description, and Thesis & Law)

*Levels IV-VI must have been completed before starting Rhetoric stage classical composition

Debate (Mondays Only)

Tuition: $90/year

Description: Utilizing Aristotelian logic and the Socratic method, along with skills developed in Classical Composition IV, students approach debate with a high emphasis on oration. Topics will be drawn from Omnibus VI.

Latin

Tuition: $180/year

Description: Starting with First Form Latin, students will take a grammar first approach to the ancient language which is suitable for those just beginning, as well as those in the Grammar Stage. Second and Third Form reviews all material in the previous Forms, completes the verb paradigms for all four conjugations in the indicative active and passive, and much more! Fourth Form Latin completes the journey of Latin grammar by reviewing all material in First, Second, and Third Form, completing all verb forms for all four conjugations by studying participles, infinitives, gerunds, etc.

Course Requirements:

- Your child’s appropriate Latin workbook and textbook from Memoria Press. New students to Latin must start with First Form

Recommended:

- Vocabulary flashcards
- Pronunciation CD

Omnibus (History, Theology, Literature)

Tuition: $300/year

Description: Omnibus I: Discussion of the History, Literature and Theology of Ancient Times: With history, literature, and theology wrapped into one discussion course, the “all-encompassing” Omnibus I curriculum by Veritas Press explores literature relating to Ancient times from a Christian worldview. This class seeks to help students grow through reading great works while they also grow in the ability to contribute to good discussion related to the books being read.

Assignments anticipate that each week students will spend 1 to 1 ½ hours reading/preparing on each of the three weekdays the class does not meet in order to be ready to enjoy participating in scheduled discussions. Dialectic students (Grades 7-9) will be building independence in completing readings, building comprehension skills, and applying what they read in ever improving discussion skills. Rhetoric students (Grades 10-12) will be doing these things as well as leading the way in recognizing ideas and philosophies and analyzing them from a Christian worldview. Since our goal is to enjoy challenging ourselves with these great works, the work load may be modified for students at different levels in a way that will still allow for fruitful group discussion, and parent input is welcomed and encouraged.

Books to be read will be chosen from among those covered in the Omnibus I textbook. Primary books (traditional Great Books) will be chosen from among books such as the Epic of Gilgamesh, The Code of Hammurabi, The Odyssey, Histories, Oresteia, Plutarch's Lives, The Theban Trilogy, The Last Days of Socrates, The Early History of Rome, The Aeneid, Julius Caesar, and books of the Bible. Secondary books (which provide balance in the areas of Theology, History and Literature) will be chosen from among books such as: Till we Have Faces, The Chronicles of Narnia, The Best Things in Life, the Unaborted Socrates, The Eagle of the Ninth, and The Screwtape Letters.

Required materials:

- Omnibus I Textbook (please wait to acquire reading material until told to do so by Mentor—not all books will be covered during the schoolyear)

Educational Resource Center Courses

Art: Beginning Art Gr. Pre-k-3

Offered: Spring Semester, Mondays

Tuition: $60/semester, plus $40 mat. fee payable on first day

Description: Learn the building blocks of art! This beginning art class teaches the seven elements of art and the principals of design. Students will explore basic art media and techniques through engaging hands on projects! Designed to provide students with the opportunity to develop a foundation of varied art skills, techniques and concepts!

Daring Drama Gr. 4-12:

Offered: Fall and Spring Semesters, Mondays

Tuition: $80/semester, plus $15 mat. Fee, payable on first day

Description: Students will be investing time in learning the basic skills of acting by doing exercises and improvisations. They will build confidence in public speaking and leadership by having the opportunity to present scenarios and acting exercises in front of and alongside their peers. They will learn about basic stage directions and about the skills needed to be a good actor. Some time will be spent on developing a monologue and audition techniques. Loose clothing and sneakers are recommended. Students should bring a folder with paper and a writing tool.

Gym Gr. K-3, 4-6, 7-12

Offered: Fall and Spring Semesters, Wednesdays

Tuition: $65/semester

Description: Features a variety of sports/games with an emphasis on teamwork and sportsmanship in addition to individual progress in skills, fitness and flexibility.

Karate 8 years old-Adult

Offered: Year Round

Tuition: $250/Fall Semester, plus testing fees and cost for uniform paid directly to instructor

Description: Taught by Master Wood, classes will consist of awareness, self-discipline, physical fitness, basics in self-defense, dealing with bullies, Martial Arts history, and having fun while training.

Math Club Gr. K-3rd

Offered: Fall Semester, Mondays

Tuition: $60, plus $40 mat. fee

Description: Math Club is a fun, hands-on learning experience designed to firm up the fundamentals of addition, subtraction, and counting money. Memory exercises, multi-sensory learning centers, and games will make practicing math an enjoyable and active experience.

Mathematics-Firming up the FUNdamentals Gr. 6-12

Offered: Fall and Spring Semesters, Wednesdays

Tuition: $150/year

Description: Very often, when students begin taking algebra, they realize the necessity of having a firm grasp on many of the foundational topics that they were taught at the elementary level. Arithmetic concepts, such as fractions, decimals, percentages, integer operations, and basic math facts are the fundamental tools and building blocks on which algebra and other abstract mathematics topics are built.

But, don't worry; it's never too late! This class will revisit many of these essential themes through instruction, individual and group work, drills, and games. By firming up these fundamentals, you will be ready to tackle algebra and higher-level math courses with confidence!

This year will emphasize integers; roots and powers; scientific notation; multiplying and dividing by powers of 10; area, perimeter, and volume; properties, area, and circumference of circles. Students will also have weekly drills of basic math facts.

Required Materials: 1-inch binder, college-ruled paper, pencil, eraser

Peacemaking Families Gr. K-Adult

Offered: Fall and Spring Semesters, Wednesdays

Tuition: TBD

*Description: This class will explore biblical principles and specific skills of peacemaking for parents and children through the use of games, role-plays, and instructional time. Approaches to the material will be taken from adaptations the The Young Peacemaker, by Corlette Sande and materials from Ambassadors of Reconciliation, such as The Conflict Resolution vs. Reconciliation Bible study materials.*

Planning Your Way to Health Gr. 7-Adult

Offered: Fall and Spring Semesters, bi-weekly on Mondays

Tuition: $75/semester, plus a one-time mat. fee of $30 for planner

Description: Planning a week full of healthy meals can be daunting. With our busy lives and busy schedules, it's too easy to grab a quick meal at the local fast food restaurant. But as cases of obesity and autoimmune diseases continue to rise in this country, it's clear that what we're eating isn't food at all. With bi-weekly food tastings, ready-made shopping lists, recipes, and more, healthy eating and living has never been so easy—or yummy!

Rotating Units I “On the Move” and “Fun with Water and Bubbles” (Gr. K-3)

Offered: Fall Semester, Wednesdays

Tuition: $65

Description: On the Move: Through hands-on activities, song, and demonstrations, gravity, air resistance, acceleration, inertia, friction, and pressure concepts will be learned. A copy of the song will be glued to the back of the activity or information sheet of the day for home.

Fun with Water and Bubbles: Join in the fun using hands-on activities, learn about properties of water and ice, displacement, surface tension, air pressure, float or sink, condensation, evaporation, solubles and insolubles.

Course Requirements: Folder with pockets & prongs and a pencil

Rotating Units I “Fabulous Fractions” and “America the Beautiful” Gr. K-3

Offered: Spring Semester, Wednesdays

Tuition: $65

Description: Fabulous Fractions: If you wanted a big piece of your favorite pizza, would you choose a piece that is $\frac{1}{4}$ of the pizza or $\frac{1}{3}$ of it? What fraction of a bag of candy would you get if you share it with 5 friends? You will be able to answer these questions and learn about fair shares, fractional parts of a whole or group, and equivalent fractions by participating in a variety of hands-on materials.

America the Beautiful: Join us in singing songs that honor America. You will find out who wrote these songs, when, and why they were written. Picture books will be shared illustrating the beauty of our country. Each class will begin with the Pledge of Allegiance.

Course Requirements: Folder with pockets & prongs and a pencil

Rotating Units II “Walk on the Wild Side” and “You’re a Grand Old Flag” Gr. 4-6

Offered: Fall Semester, Wednesdays

Tuition: $65

Description: Walk on the Wild Side: Wolves, bats, and wild turkeys—oh my! Classifying, gathering factual information from articles and poems, identifying fact and opinion, graphing, and comparing and contrasting life cycles will be learned/reinforced.

You're a Grand Old Flag: “Old Glory” has had many changes over the years. You will trace these changes from the American Revolution to present day, discover how our flag has become used at special historical events, and learn how to display the flag properly.

Course Requirements: Folder with pockets & prongs and a pencil

Rotating Units II “The Gold Laced Coat” Gr. 4-6

Offered: Spring Semester, Wednesdays

Tuition: $65

Description: Join Pierre as he lives at Fort Niagara during the French and Indian War. You will be meeting many other characters, be challenged by vocabulary, and learn about the French and Indian War on the Niagara Frontier through this historical novel by Helen Fuller Orton.

Course Requirements: Folder with pockets & prongs and a pencil

Science Exploration Club Gr. 1-6

Offered: Fall and Spring Semesters, Wednesdays

Tuition: $75/semester, plus $40 mat. Fee, payable on first day of each semester

Description: Students work together to experiment with simple machines, molecular cohesion, hydraulics, weather, and more! Students will add to their vocabulary, posture hypotheses, make a plan, and execute it. The year ends with the construction of a Rube Goldberg machine. Notebook and pencil for journaling will be required.

Core Strength and Stretch, Adult

Offered: Fall and Spring Semesters, Mondays

Tuition: $75/semester

Description: This class is suitable for anyone from young teen to older adult. The focus of this class will be on strengthening the core to improve posture, balance, flexibility, and agility. The class will begin with a warm-up, proceed to a working segment, and end with a stretch and relaxation segment. Supportive shoes, loose clothing, mat/towel, and a water bottle are recommended. Floor work is optional; chair work can be substituted if preferred.

Vocal Adventures, Gr. 4-12

Offered: Fall and Spring Semesters, Mondays

Tuition: $80/semester, plus $15 mat. Fee, payable on first day

Description: Students will learn the fundamentals of singing and apply them as they sing various pieces, first sung in unison, and then sung in parts. They will be introduced to the skills of sight-singing, rote singing, building simple harmony, counting beats, and vocal blending. We will practice both sacred and secular choral music.

CLUB/FREE OPTIONS

Chess Club

Offered: Fall and Spring Semesters, Wednesdays

Description: Come join the fun and challenge of playing chess. Beginners and players of all ability levels are welcome! Students who are beginners or who have had less experience will be clustered and will play to strengthen skills or experience a challenge. Basic, intermediate, and advanced level players will play with students of all levels at the instructor's discretion.

Course Requirements: Students must 1) have an attention span of 45 minutes, 2) be able to follow directions, 3) listen quietly, and 4) stay focused on the fundamentals of chess.

Shakespeare Club, All Ages

Offered: Fall and Spring Semesters, Wednesdays

Description: Join us as we take parts and read together. The group will choose plays as we go along. So that we can keep things appropriate and allow for flexible age range, we will keep the focus away from some sensitive subject matter, but students should be mature enough for the content of tragedies.

Student Council, Gr. 6-12

Offered: Fall and Spring Semesters, twice a month

Description: Teamwork. Service. Leadership. Civics.

Nothing allows our children to develop these valuable life skills as thoroughly and enjoyably as participation in Student Government. This club will offer students a cooperative and collaborative environment to actively shape their student life experience at St. Peter's Educational Resource Center. This enriching experience will provide students with the opportunity to:

1. Respectfully present and discuss ideas and opinions to enhance their school experience.
2. Help plan/execute activities, fundraisers, and service opportunities to engage the ERC family, St. Peter Lutheran Church, and the local community.
3. Develop a sense of civic privilege and duty as they take an active role in a positive group environment focused on Christian service that aims to advance the individual and collective goals of the ERC family.

The main purpose of this group is to give students both a "voice" and a tangible impact in the ERC community, utilizing their various God-given talents to contribute to the school life experience at St. Peter. Our student council invites middle and high school students to attend meetings scheduled twice a month for planning, organizing necessary fundraising, and executing activities in a fun, yet efficient and effective group atmosphere. There will be student leadership through elections, a hands-on Parent Advisor to assist in the advancement of goals and management of funds, and the oversight of the ERC administrators.

*Sign-up sheet may be found on the sign-in desk at the start of the school year